Chair of the Volunteering and Fundraising Network

The Chair is the head of the Volunteering and Fundraising Network. The Chair works with the Network Committee and student volunteers to run events, hold forums, and campaign to support students' engagement with activities that have positive social impact. They are also a key voice on social impact issues to the SU and University.

Specifically, the Chair of the Volunteering and Fundraising Network:

- Engages students with the Network, building community through effective communication and events
- Keeps relevant Full-Time Officers and SU staff informed about the activities and needs of the Network
- Works with relevant Full-time Officers to keep up-to-date with local and national policy changes relevant to the Network, informing students about issues of importance
- Works with relevant Full-Time Officers to gather student opinion and feedback on issues relevant to the Network
- Chairs Network meetings and ensures that the democratic aspects of the Network (elections and democratic meetings) are properly conducted
- Ensures the Network acts in line with Union policy and in the best interests of its members.
- Scrutinises the work of Full-time Officers, ensuring that their work adequately addresses students' priorities in relation to social and environmental impact
- Through Standing Committee, scrutinises the work of all Networks and ensures they are acting in the best interests of the Union's members
- Attends Student Council and its Standing Committee, reporting on the activity of the Network when asked
